

This appendix includes a summary of the May 2003 Hazards New York (HAZNY) analysis for Greene County; obtained from Greene County's Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan.

ATTACHMENT I

HAZARD ANALYSIS RESULTS FOR GREENE COUNTY
using HAZNY as provided by the State Emergency Management Office

Hazard	Rating	Classification
Hazardous Materials in Transit	341.3	High Hazard
Flood	271.2	Moderately High
Terrorism	252.0	Moderately High
Ice Jam	251.8	Moderately High
Severe Storm	223.5	Moderately Low
Ice Storm	214.5	Moderately Low
Hazardous Materials (Fixed Site)	208.3	Moderately Low
Winter Storm (Severe)	207.2	Moderately Low
Transportation Accident	204.8	Moderately Low
Wildfire	197.2	Moderately Low
Dam Failure	196.8	Moderately Low
Landslide	195.8	Moderately Low
Earthquake	174.8	Moderately Low
Tornado	165.8	Moderately Low
Explosion	164.8	Moderately Low
Radiological in Transit	163.5	Moderately Low
Structural Collapse	143.8	Low Hazard
Oil Spill	143.8	Low Hazard
Utility Failure	143.8	Low Hazard
Avalanche	138.8	Low Hazard
Water Supply Contamination	135.8	Low Hazard
Extreme Temperature	124.2	Low Hazard
Drought	107.8	Low Hazard

These results of the Hazard Analysis were reported by the Greene County Local Emergency Preparedness Committee in May 2003.

A new Hazard Analysis test need to be completed.